The President's Message

By Robert de Berardinis

This should be my last President's message, which you and I are both grateful. It is also that time of year when you get to renew your dues. To help spur renewals, any member who gets three people to join receives one hour of uninterrupted help from either Marje Harris, Marj Lowe, or me. Before I quit taking clients in 2008, my fee was $100/hour. So, this is a fine inducement. I would like the membership to be at an all-time high in May. I am pleased that the membership has grown during my term. And I am gratified by the attendance at our meetings. But none of this would have been possible without the hard work by your officers and directors—to whom I am truly most grateful. And, I am grateful to all of you who donated your time, money, and goodies to the betterment of this organization and its meetings.

This fall, after a one year hiatus, Marje Harris will again be teaching her series on beginning genealogy. This is all great news for this organization—there is no one better suited for this series within 1,500 miles.

And after my term is over, I plan to go back to finishing several book projects on translating French and Spanish colonial documents (see later in this issue one of them—a calendar of the Library of Congress' 33 reel micropublication, The Louisiana Colonial Records Project) and traveling to other first world countries with the newly retired Mrs. de Berardinis.

Boss of snacks Gay Dowdy wishes to retire from her highly paid volunteer job. So, we need someone to become the 2nd Hereditary Boss of Snacks. If you wish to take on this highly paid and rewarding job, please contact me by email.

Editor of this fine publication, Leslie Conrads, has discovered doing programs and editing is a bit much. So, we need someone to edit The Genealogical Record. Again, if you wish to take on this highly paid and rewarding job, please contact me by email.

Upcoming lectures for the rest of my term are truly outstanding:

- In April, my good friends Ann Becker will bring pre-publication photos from her new book on the history of River Oaks and Lee Pecht, the University Archivist for Rice will talk about his new book on the history of Rice to commemorate its 100th anniversary. Both will be offering their books for sale, although with Ann's book, they will be delivered at the May meeting because the release date of the book is later in April, or be made available for pickup at her bookstore at 7405 Westview Drive, Houston, TX 77055, (713) 957-8088
- In May, my pal Al Robichaux will lecture on his new book on the genealogy of the German Coast.

The Houston Genealogical Forum has completed its donation of nearly $700,000 worth of National Archives microfilm to Fondren Library of Rice University. See the letter from Dr. Sara Lowman, Vice-Provost of Rice and the head of Fondren Library thanking HGF for its gift. Kerry Keck, the head of reference for Fondren will be at the February meeting. This is a truly big deal.

In closing, thank you for the opportunity to serve as your president. Between Clayton Library Friends and this organization, I have spent a total of nine years serving on boards and am desirous of indolence.

Thank you again,

Robert

Mr. Robert de Berardinis
Houston Genealogical Forum
Post Office Box 271466
Houston, Texas 77277-1466

Mr. de Berardinis,

On behalf of Fondren Library, I would like to thank you for the recent donation of approximately 6,000 rolls of microfilm from the National Archives & Records Administration.

The collection will be of value to our faculty and students – our American history faculty members are quite happy to have the material readily available. Once the collection is processed, of course, the collections also will be available to the members of your Forum, as well as other interested readers in the Houston area.

Due to space constraints in our building, we will be housing the film in our off-site facility, but the processing will be designed to ensure that users will be able to identify needed reels, and request delivery to Fondren Library for use.

I have attached the requested brief blurb for your newsletter.

Again, we thank you for the generous donation of research resources not readily available in the region. Your support for Fondren Library is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Rice University

- To conduct genealogical discussions and lectures for the furtherance of genealogy through public education.
- To create, foster and maintain interest among citizens of Harris County, Texas, in the genealogy and local history of Harris County, the genealogy of the founders of this Republic, and such genealogy as may be of interest to the members.
